ELDER LORIS HEYWOOD
Bethel Gospel Chapel, Georgetown, Guyana

In the year that Guyana became an Independent Nation (1966), while still a student of QUEEN'S COLLEGE, Loris Heywood became a born-again believer in JESUS CHRIST. Opportunities have since abounded for him to demonstrate the grace and goodness of God in a variety of settings. Giftings have found expression as he has fulfilled various roles:

- as prize-winning student at Queen's College for an 'A' Level distinction in Economics (1968), and at the University of Guyana as the Best Graduating Student in the post-graduate Diploma in Education program (1983);
- as Teacher at Central High School (1968-72) and at Ruinveldt Multilateral (1976-86), where he received the 'Best Teacher' accolade at one of the School's Prize-giving exercises;
- as Senior Program Assistant at the United Nations Development Program (UNDP) 1986-1989, and as a member of the Senior Staff of the CARICOM Secretariat (1989-2011) with responsibility for UNDP-funded Regional Projects and latterly for regional Human Resource Development initiatives;
- as Chairman of the National Board of Inter-School/Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship (IS/IVCF), 1977-79, 1981-83 and previously Member of that Board (1970s-83) as well as Chairman of the Rally and the Camp Sub-Committees (1970s - 80s approx.);
- as Preacher, Motivational Speaker, Christian Advocate on various Radio and TV programs and for a variety of conferences, youth camps, Workers' groups and other settings; and
- as Member of the Leadership Team, and for the last few years Head of that Leadership Team at 'Bethel Gospel Hall', Camp Street, Georgetown.

No area of endeavor means more to him than that of 'FAMILY'. He is married to the love of his life, Claudia, for almost forty(40)years and they have been blessed with six outstanding and versatile children, two daughters and four sons, now all adults, with ages ranging from 25 to 36 years.
